Spend a rousing evening with the leading connoisseur of life's cherished moments, as Garrison Keillor brings to the stage his wonderfully wry anecdotes about growing up in the Midwest, the people of Lake Wobegon, and "late-life fatherhood." The host of NPR's A Prairie Home Companion for over 30 years, Keillor is back with his gentle humor and disarming wisdom to share his passion for everything from love, religion and politics, to the great journey of life.

Please eat dinner beforehand or bring a dinner to eat on the bus.

Please contact Barbara Stocker barbara.stocker@att.net if you have questions or need accommodation for special needs.

OLLI members only until November 22, 2017.
Open to family and friends thereafter.
