

CSUF Student Piano Performances

Tuesday, November 28, 2017 • Noon – 1:30 pm
Mackey Auditorium

Maryna Kysla
Yu You Li
Mei Yi

The end of our semester of great music provided by CSUF students from the School of Music is coming to a close soon. Our first program of this power packed week will feature three talented piano students studying under Ning An, Assistant Professor of Music, Piano Studies and Dr. Rob Watson, Professor of Music (piano) and Keyboard Area Coordinator, CSUF. Join us to listen and learn as these three talented young pianists bring the following music alive for you.

- Liszt – Mephistopheles Waltz
- Scriabin – Sonata No. 2
- Beethoven - Op. 2, No. 2
1st Movement
- Chopin- Sonata No. 2

This program is open to the public.

Please join us in welcoming these three great artists to OLLI.

NOTE: Time Change

BILL CUNLIFFE

CSUF Professor of Music

Director

Fullerton Jazz Orchestra & Big Band,
Fullerton Latin Ensemble and Jazz Small Groups (Combos)

Bill Cunliffe will once again lecture and perform his special blend of swing/jazz. His vast knowledge is impressive and his willingness to share his gift is heartwarming.

In addition, his Jazz students will be coming in from 2:30 to 3:45 pm. Come find out what surprises are in store for you in this wonderful music presentation.

Special Announcement

Man Ling Bai – Will present her Senior Recital on Wednesday, November 29, 2017, 8pm in the Recital Hall. This is a free event.

This will be Man Ling's last presentation with CSUF as she will be leaving CSUF to pursue a Master's Degree hopefully at USC or New York.

Come celebrate this moment with this wonderful talented student as she leaves CSUF and opens up a new door in the world of music.
