First Note

Moderately

I'll have a blue Christmas, without you. I'll be so blue blue Christmas, that's certain. And when that blue thinking about you. Decorations of red on a heart-ache starts hurt'in'. You'll be do-in' all right with your green Christmas tree won't mean a thing if you're not here with me. I'll have a white, but I'll have a blue, blue Christmas.
