

ECLECTICS HAS LOTS OF AMAZING SPEAKERS LINED UP FOR FALL!

(JUST KIDDING -- HE IS NOT ONE OF THEM.)

SEE BELOW FOR THE AMAZING SPEAKERS WHO ARE COMING.

All classes in this series meet in Mackey Auditorium. Most meet from 10-11:30 a.m.

Please note the exceptions to times and dates which differ from the Blue Book.

Tuesday, September 9    NOTE SPECIAL TIME: 2:30-4 p.m.

Dr. Tianlong Jiao, Vice President of Collections and Chief Curator, Bowers Museum

“World of Terracotta Warriors: New Archaeological Discoveries in Shaanxi, China, in the 21st Century”. Come learn about this fascinating discovery and how the Bowers consistently manages to attract such amazing exhibits.

Tuesday, September 30    NOTE CHANGE OF DATE from Blue Book listing

Back by popular demand: David Marley, Ph.D., History Professor, CSUF and author of “Skipper Stories: True Tales From Disneyland’s Jungle Cruise”

Tuesday, October 7

Jody Agius Vallejo, Professor, Sociology/American Studies and Ethnicity, USC

“Immigration, Civil Rights, and Our Collective Future”

Tuesday, October 21

Jay Seidel, Professor, Fullerton College and Director of the Drone Lab.

“Flying Into the Future: How Drones are Changing Our World”

Tuesday, November 4

Felicia Cohn, Ph.D., UCI School of Medicine, Department of Bioethics

“Ethical Dilemmas & Decision Making in Healthcare Settings: Who Decides & Who Guides?”

Tuesday, November 18

Nancy Watkins, Ph.D., Director, Educational Doctorate Program, Associate Professor, Educational Leadership, CSUF

“When the Systems Fail: Hard Truths About Public Education”

Tuesday, December 9

Peter Eliasberg, Chief Counsel/Manheim Family Attorney for First Amendment Rights, ACLU of Southern California

“ACLU: Fighting to Protect Our Civil Liberties”