Hollywood Bowl LA Philharmonic

Dudamel Conducts Ellington and Ravel

Join with OLLI friends for our annual trip to the Hollywood Bowl featuring the works of Maurice Ravel, who was influenced by visiting the Harlem Jazz Clubs in 1928, resulting in 2 beloved piano concertos. A rising piano star, Seung-Jin Cho, joins with Gustavo Dudamel and the LA Philharmonic for these vibrant works.

About one block of walking, escalator use, & short stair climb to Bench Seats with backs.
Concert goes – rain or shine

Bring a picnic dinner and dine under the stars while listening to the concert. You are permitted to bring beer and wine into the Bowl. If you prefer, you may eat on the bus. Bring a warm jacket as nights can be cool. Special events are open to members only. If the event is not filled by June 13, Non-member guests are welcome. Waiver required if not already registered.
